FFO: Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes, Bob Dylan

Ray Sheehan and the Midnight Players are Jersey born musicians, who will blow the doors off of every venue they play. You will experience a soulful driving set that will shake you to your core. Featuring songs off of Ray Sheehan's debut album "The Turning Point", released at just 17 years old. He is looking forward to bringing his band: Ray Sheehan and The Midnight Players, to you! After performing at various venues in Jersey by the likes of the world famous "Stone Pony" in Asbury Park, along with the well established "Dingbatz" in Clifton, they never disappoint.

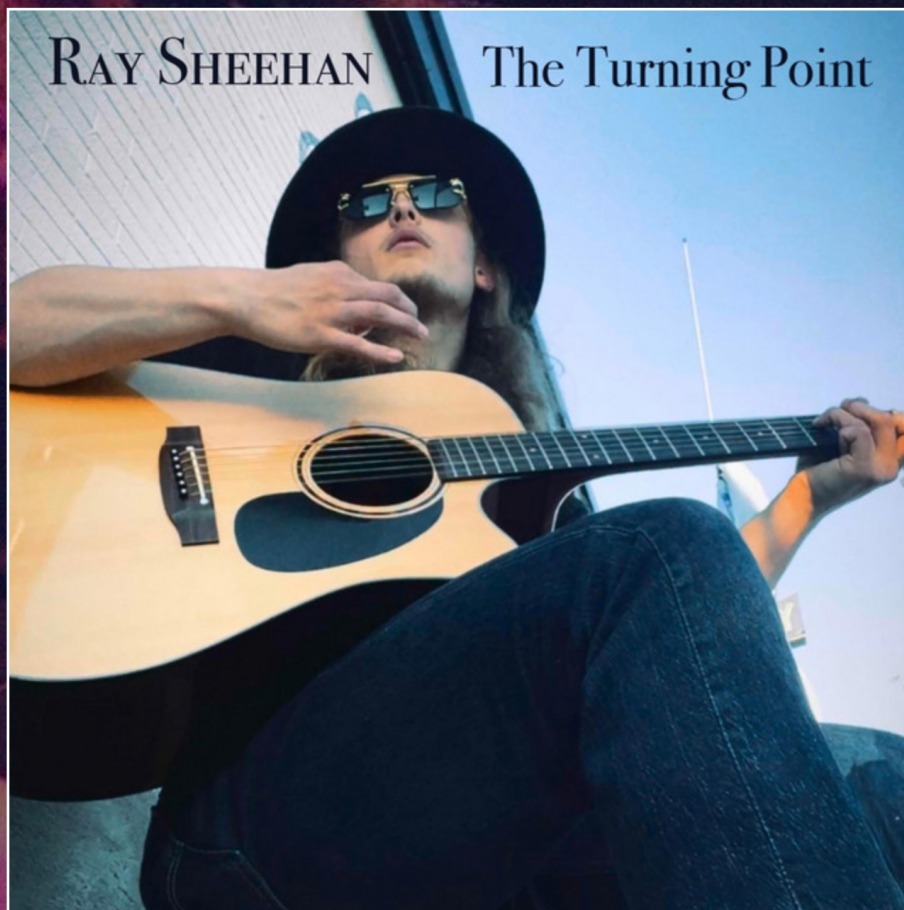

The roots of Ray Sheehan began in Neptune NJ, surrounded by the neighboring music utopia of Asbury Park. After moving to New Egypt New Jersey early in his teen years, Ray desired to be one of the performers in Asbury. Idolizing New Jersey music legends such as Bruce Springsteen, and Southside Johnny and The Asbury Jukes, looking to somewhat follow their footsteps in today's day and age. Years passed and the band was formed, now having played the "Stone Pony" more than four times. Subsequently making a name for themselves in the scene. The band is coming into their million dollar sound, composed of classic and bluesy rock roots, with an energetic rhythm that will get people dancing, and having a great time, all while saying "I Don't Want to Go Home".

The band is seeking to bring their show to neighboring states of New Jersey in the coming months. Pennsylvania and New York will have doors blown off of their venues. People will dance and sing their hearts out, nothing is off limits nor too far.
